RE: U.S. v. José HEBERTO ALVAREZ DENIS; 15-CR-00632-(JGK-1)

DEAR Judge KOELTL:

Please Accept this letter in lieu of a more informal motion for an Application for Compassionate Release, requesting a sentence of time served or immediate release to home confinement pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3582(e)(1)(A), 4205(a), and passage of the "Cares Act" of 2020, The Act Amended 18 U.S.C. § 3642(d)(2), To allow inmates to home confinement for an unlimited period of time, for inmate who have COVID-19 Risk Factors as established by the CSC.

Having now Exhausted All Administrative Remedies (see Exhibit Enclosed) based on a combination of circumstances including the COVID-19 Pandemic, and particularly the increase risk to Petitioner if Petitioner remains in Prison while the Pandemic has struck the vicinity of Allenwood Medium and the Penitentiary where it has taken life in both places, and now can easily

Be knowing at the Allenwood low facility low where this virus could seriously bring death unto Petitioner.

Petitioner Humbly and Respectfully believes that due to the above mentioned matter is eligible for immediate release to home confinement because of the covid-19 Risk Factor where it has taken already a couple of life from the neighbor facility and probably knowing on Allenwood low if not already visiting but because of no virus exam has not yet been detected.

Petitioner is also Requesting that the Honorable Court if necessary for further submission Grant Petitioner a defense counsel.

Very Truly Yours,

ALVAREZ Jose H.

Jose Hererto Alvarez Denis

Inmate Request to Staff Response

This is in response to your correspondence to staff wherein you request to be released to Home Confinement.

Currently, Section 12003(b)(2) of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act ("CARES Act") grants discretion to the BOP to place inmates on home confinement for a longer term under 18 U.S.C. § 3624(c)(2). The BOP's discretion is guided by criteria listed in memoranda from the Attorney General.

After a comprehensive review of your circumstances, in accordance with the Attorney General's criteria, you are not eligible for home confinement placement. You have a detainer and you have served less than 50 percent of your sentence.
